

John Sloat

2022 | CABERNET SAUVIGNON
ALEXANDER VALLEY

Admiral John Sloat was a swashbuckling explorer who loved adventure and discovery. He found bounty in the New World. We have discovered this New World Cabernet Sauvignon to be delicious with classic flavors. May each bottle of John Sloat be the beginning of your new adventure.

WINEMAKING

The Alexander Valley vines enjoyed a warm spring, and early summer. Relatively mild summer temperatures allowed the grapes to mature evenly. Harvest began right on time, in early September, concluding in late October. The long hang time allowed the fruit to develop rich flavors while maintaining balanced acidity.

TASTING NOTE

A Classic Alexander Valley wine with medium body, bright berry flavors and smooth, structured tannins. Complex and food-loving with notes of black current, brambleberry, rich mocha and earthy tobacco that segue to flavors of red cherry, ripe fig and a hint of dried lavender. The palate is well structured and silky, with a persistent finish.
