

SAUVIGNON BLANC

2024 | CALIFORNIA

Discover Old Mountain, a wine that reflects the majesty of nature and time-honored craftsmanship. Each sip reveals a story of the land, inviting you to pause, savor and celebrate life's cherished moments.

WINEMAKING

Old Mountain Sauvignon Blanc is sourced from California, where the terrain varies greatly, from steep mountain slopes to valley vineyards. Differing elevations, soil types and sun exposure produce vines of fortitude that have withstood the elements for hundreds of years and result is wines with big, bold flavors, elegant structure and the best nature has to offer.

TASTING NOTE

This Sauvignon Blanc is bright and exhibits aromas of citrus blossom, lemon zest and a stone fruit. Flavors of sun ripened nectarine and crisp, tart apple segue to a beautiful finish that lingers long after the sun fades to nightfall.
